BOERS SHELL BRITISH CAMP AT MOOI RIVER.

Artillery Duel Raging But No Harm Done by the Burgher Guns Though Well Aimed.

COLONEL J. F. BROCKLEHURST, On Special Service. CAPTAIN PERCY M. SCOTT, Of the Telford.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. MOOI RIVER, Natal, Nov. 23.—The Boer guns began to shell the camp at 5 A. M. The British artillery is in position on high ground to the east, west and north of the station. The artillery duel was continued until 8, when it ceased for an hour. The Boers recommenced at 9 and dropped three shells into the camp. They are still firing at intervals, with no damage, although their aim is good.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. QUEBETOWN, Cape Colony, Wednesday, Nov. 23.—For strategic reasons and to reassure the British population, General Gatacre has decided on a partial forward movement after the reinforcements arrive tonight. Several further arrests have been made at Naarwoort and in that neighborhood of influential Dutch burghers. Repeating to deputations from Herschell regarding the intentions of the Free

DEWEY TO VISIT WHEELING IN HONOR OF HOBART.

The Attacks on the Admiral Evoke Messages of Sympathy.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—A delegation from Wheeling, W. Va., today called on Admiral Dewey and extended an invitation to him to visit that city February 26th next. The admiral accepted the invitation. He was presented by the committee with a superb service of furniture. Lieutenant Crawford today gave out the following statement on behalf of the admiral: "Admiral Dewey has received many hundreds of letters and telegrams from persons in all walks of life in every section of the country from Maine to Texas assuring him that he is not without admirers and that they are all sincere sympathizers with him in connection with the recent attack upon him. These letters and telegrams are far too numerous to receive personal acknowledgment, but the admiral is deeply grateful to the senders and desires to assure them of his hearty appreciation of their kind consideration for him."

NORTHERN PACIFIC BONDS.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 23.—The Northern Pacific has issued official notice that $88 of the general first mortgage bonds, in denominations of $5,000, registered, representing a total par value of $1,400,000, have been placed for the sinking fund. All outstanding bonds of this class under the first mortgage have been called in for redemption. The sinking fund will be paid off at 110, with accrued interest, on presentation at the office of the road in New York city. All interest will cease after January 1st. This payment leaves prior lien 4 per cent bonds of the Northern Pacific a straight first lien. The general first mortgage bonds become a second lien on the entire property of the road, with the exception of the old St. Paul and Northern Pacific line of 123 miles. There are outstanding of the prior lien 4 per cent bonds $20,000,000, and of the general 8 per cent bonds $25,000,000. The funds for the payment of the sinking fund were received through the sales of Washington lands to the Veyerhaeuser lumber syndicate. Their payment was made to the first charges of the company $270,000 a year.

BRITISH ARE HUMILIATED BY BOER INVASION.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 23.—The fact that fresh portions of Natal are being overrun daily by the Boers is producing exasperation in that colony and intense humiliation in Great Britain, where the idea of a possible extensive violation of British soil was contemptuously dismissed in the early stages of the war. Operators on the Stock Exchange here are becoming nervous, and the continued loss in consols exemplifies the readiness of the market. The rumors that a peace deputation from President Kruger is on its way to Cape Town for the purpose of ascertaining the terms upon which an immediate cessation of hostilities could be secured are discredited here, and it is held that such a deputation has been sent to meet with scant courtesy, as those who are conducting the war will be satisfied with nothing but a complete submission of the Boers to the terms of peace at Pretoria as a prelude to the British strength throughout the Transvaal.

BOER AGGRESSIVENESS.

GEN. MACARTHUR BACK IN TARLAC.

Natives at San Carlos Meet the Americans With a Brass Band.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. MANILA, Nov. 23.—5:55 P. M.—General MacArthur has returned to Tarlac and has established his headquarters at Aguinid's former residence. During the entire movement from Gerona to Dagupan not a shot was fired. The inhabitants of San Carlos met the Americans with a band, and the Mayor with General MacArthur and Colonel Bell, in a carriage, headed a procession through the town. General MacArthur received an ovation. Explaining the Americans' intention, he announced they intended to garrison all the towns. Hundreds of men are in the field harvesting rice along the railroads. The foreigners in the territory assert that Aguinid was not expecting the Americans for a month, when the ruins would have been finished. He had permitted a large part of his army to enter his home and to do the harvesting. The soldiers had and their rifles about their homes. If this were true, many soldiers are likely to be brought in to secure the $30 offered for each weapon seized. The fighting of Pangasinan river, above Tarlac, by the Thirty-seventh regiment and a battalion of the Seventeenth regiment was a noteworthy feat. The river is now a wide expanse of water. The command was ferried on rafts and the remainder swam over, holding on to a life line strung across. General MacArthur communicated with him, was holding San Fabian and two or three neighboring towns.

SLAUGHTER OF THE DERVISHES.

Routed By the British in the Soudan and Four Hundred Are Killed.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 23.—General Wingate, with an Egyptian force, moved from Fakhit yesterday to attack the force of Ahmed Fedi, reported to be at Nefessa, twenty-three miles from the river Nile, on the road to Geisel. The Sudan General Kitchener, has telegraphed to General Wingate to follow. DRE STRIDER'S DISPATCH. "OMDURMAN, Nov. 23.—Wingate found Nefessa evacuated, pushed on to Ahmad, four miles farther, and found there a large force of Dervishes charged with all their old dromedaries to within thirty yards of the guns. Wingate, with the infantry, arrived in time to support Mahon and cleared the whole camp. The Dervishes sought through the bushes, and by the morning report of Wingate estimated Fedi's force at 2,500 men, of whom 400 were killed. "Wingate captured many prisoners, guns, mules and spears. The Egyptian casualties were three wounded."

THE KENTUCKY ELECTION.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 23.—The county election board, after hearing arguments yesterday and today on the motion to throw out the vote of the city of Louisville, of the election of the city of Louisville to the State Board, which will convene in Frankfort. The motion to throw out the vote was made by the Democratic candidates, claiming intimidation of voters by soldiers on election day. The Federal Grand Jury in session here today returned another large batch of indictments against election officers, those indicted being in different sections of the State.

THE MOINEUX JURORS.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—At the opening of the trial of Roland E. Moineux today two of the jurors were taken out of the box and excused because of sickness. They are Abraham Altamayer and Morris A. Brade. The first named, it was shown, had recently suffered an attack of congestion of the brain, and Brade was subject to epileptic fits, according to his family physician. Recorder Dwyer, however, recently stated that he had heard testimony regarding the health of the two men, excused them. The first juror examined today was the 22d since the case began. No additional juror had been accepted when the court recessed at noon.

BRITISH SHIP FOUNDERS.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 23.—A dispatch received from Corona, Chile, states that the British ship Dunbrun, from Barry for Junin, was dashed in a gale and is supposed to have foundered. The ship was taken out of the box and excused because of sickness. They are Abraham Altamayer and Morris A. Brade. The first named, it was shown, had recently suffered an attack of congestion of the brain, and Brade was subject to epileptic fits, according to his family physician. Recorder Dwyer, however, recently stated that he had heard testimony regarding the health of the two men, excused them. The first juror examined today was the 22d since the case began. ## NOT A SLIGHT FOR SCHLEY.

Why His Squadron Will Not Be Sent to South Africa.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—It is said at the Navy Department that the suggestion of the department to order Rear Admiral Schley to South Africa has no connection whatever with the personality of that officer. It is merely a matter of national policy to refrain from sending warships to South Africa now. There can be little doubt that such action on our part would inevitably be followed by the other powers of the continent, and French, Russian and German fleets would follow each other there, to the complication of the situation. It is not to be learned that this attitude of our Government has been assumed as the result of any representations from the British Government.

CYCLONE WRECKS A TOWN.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. CUMBERLAND, Md., Nov. 23.—The second section of the Baltimore & Ohio passenger train No. 3, consisting of a crash, was wrecked at South Cumberland early this morning and was badly wrecked. Engineer L. R. Kinde of the Baltimore street car line, who was on the train, checked its speed and prevented the telescoping of the passenger section. He was seriously injured and marred. His friend, Lewis Masey of Baltimore, was terribly scalded and died in the hospital here. No one else was hurt. The rear car of the passenger section was wrecked and burned. The accident occurred shortly after 1 o'clock in the morning, and it was brought about by the failure of the flagman on the passenger section to go far enough back when the train stopped at a switch. The passengers in the Pullman car, which was on the rear end, were badly shaken up, and several were slightly injured. The conductor, Porter, and the Pullman car, which was on the rear end, were also slightly injured.

Slowly but surely the Bell fund crawls up toward that $20,000 mark. The question of whether or not it will ever be reached has already been disposed of affirmatively; all that remains to be answered now is how long it will take.

What has become of General Buller, who was going to wind up the fight in South Africa in one round after he got into the ring? He seems to have disappeared, as all the other British leaders have over there, that there is a bigger contract on hand than was anticipated. Those Boers are about as hard to whip as a lot of wildcats.

The astronomers had better do a little "sawing wood" for a while and not be so positive in their declarations that we are exactly thirteen million miles and 300 yards distant from Mars, or that it would take 5,000 years to reach the moon in a train traveling at the speed of the Seventh street line. Their failure to materialize the showing of meteors they promised has shaken the public faith in them considerably, for it is rather a lame excuse to come to the front now and say they made an error in their calculations of just one year.

With a record of nearly eleven inches of rain so far this season as against 3.21 for the corresponding period last year, Alameda county's crop prospects could not be better, for it will be a long time before we have too much of so good a thing. Those who may have feared that perhaps an overdose of rain is falling can banish their apprehensions, for a noticeable feature of the reports that are coming in from all over the State is that in no instance is there a complaint of too much rain, but on the contrary there are expressions of gratification over the prospects that more is coming.

A GOOD MOVE FOR OAKLAND.
If it prove true that the Southern Pacific Company is about to reclaim a large section of the tide lands adjacent to the broad gauge mole and place thereon its railroad shops and other mechanical departments, then Oakland can prepare to welcome the most notable of the many industries that have fallen to our lot during the past quarter of a century. That there is a substantial foundation to the report to this effect that has gone forth is shown in the work that is already in progress upon the territory in question, while the reasons that are advanced as to why the company should be desirous of making the change are strong enough to receive the fullest consideration.

It is to be hoped that the unfortunate custom that has so often prevailed in the past of attacking the railroad whenever it proposes a radical change in a community will not be in evidence upon this occasion, for in any event we have nothing to lose if the lands are reclaimed, while on the other hand, if the mooted project is realized we will benefit of a very substantial nature. The tide lands in their present condition are of no possible good to us, nor is there any likelihood that we will reclaim them, whereas the plan credited to the railroad means the addition of many acres of valuable land that will be available for commercial purposes.

The transfer to Oakland from Sacramento of the railroad shops is a proposition that has been advanced half a dozen times and as often denied, and it is, of course, possible that there is no more in the rumor now than on former occasions. However, should it prove true that plans in that regard have been formulated it is well to remember that the location here of the shops means an addition to our population of between 4,000 and 5,000 workmen, most of them mechanics in receipt of good wages. It is unnecessary to discuss what this means to our merchants and business men in general, for the thousands of dollars paid monthly for wages would naturally be expended here and after through the various channels of local trade. The railroad shops, therefore, will be a thrice welcome, and everything we can do towards aiding any project that might mean securing them should be done gladly.

THE CODE REVISION.
Whether or not there is an extra session of the Legislature at this particular time in connection with the election of a United States Senator, it can be considered certain that sooner or later we will have to be held to dispose of the recodification of the State laws. The work in question has reached a climax where the interests of the State demand that positive action be taken, for the law publishing firms, not desiring to be left with a lot of dead stock on their hands, have for some years past suspended publication of the codes, with the result that the books now in use are in a sad condition.

The haste of legislation and the lack of proper attention to the work toward the close of each session have resulted in a number of contradictory laws getting upon the statute books, while, especially in the Political Code, everything is in such a jumble that even the prevalent "Philadelphia lawyer" can scarcely make heads or tails of a proposition that comes within the involved sections. A case in point is as regards notices public, for until the last session of the Legislature found itself compelled to straighten that particular matter out, the codes carried two distinct provisions, one declaring the term of office to be two years and the other setting it at four years. In addition to these contradictory sections there was still another amendment that absolutely obscured the term altogether, and acting upon this, Governor Geary, by advice of the Attorney General, recently announced that there was no specific term at all, and proceeded to make removals at his pleasure.

So far the Code Commission has cost the State in round numbers the tidy sum of $20,000, for which nothing has been received in return. The first commission simply reported a number of recommendations to the Legislature, of which no notice whatever was taken, and the second commission, the one that reported last session, presented a couple of the codes as revised, but also failed to secure any action on its work. The present body is said to be going over the whole ground again, and according to present indications will be able to make a complete recommendation to the Legislature at the next session or even before that time.

Where the trouble comes, though, is in getting the Legislature to take up the reports and act upon them. The work of the Code Commission is a veritable bugaboo to the members, for they have so much of their own work to be crowded into the sixty days of the session that they fight shy of the code proposition, for they know that it involves an immense amount of work in which they are not individually interested, that is to say, not in the same sense that they are regarding the bills they personally introduce. The situation, therefore, resolves into what, if the Legislature sunder the code work at its regular session a special one will have to be called to dispose of it, for the adoption of a revised set of codes is an absolute necessity to the business interests of the State. With the new order of things, litigation will be less involved and freed from many technicalities, so not only is the work one that every lawyer longs to see completed, but every citizen should likewise, for there is no telling how soon its results may strike home.

They must be running out of news up Vancouver way, or else they would not have dragged out that Tascott chestnut again. If the police could not catch either Tascott or Dunham while the trail was hot it is not likely that they would have any success now, for in each instance the fugitive is too shrewd to ever be caught through getting drunk, quarreling, or any of the methods by which the ordinary criminal places the noose around his own neck.

While the Kaiser is enjoying the hospitality of Great Britain it would be as well for the censors to suppress those dispatches that are coming in from the Cape about German officers joining the Boer army. News of that description will not only take the edge off its welcome with the people, but might cause unpleasant complications, such, for instance, as would result if he were killed as he passed through the streets.

Senator Frye's accession to the presidency of the Senate in Hobart's place creates the possibility of a tie vote in that body, an event that is, however, of very rare occurrence. A good proof that the vice-presidency is regarded as an office of but little importance is shown in the fact that no provision is made in the Constitution for succession to it in the event of the death or disability of the incumbent.

GREAT UNIVERSITY OF THE FUTURE.

Hon. W. R. Davis Addresses the Students of the University.

Hon. Wm. R. Davis delivered the following address at the rally of the students at the State University Tuesday night. His subject was "The University, Cross-section and Perspective."

CROSS-SECTION.
"Mr. President, fellow-students and allies: I say fellow-students, for the true doctrine is: Once a University man, always a University man. President Henry Durant said to me one Sunday morning: 'Mr. Davis, you have lost something by becoming a University man; I have gained it.' The loss was, and he said: 'Every advance means leaving something behind,' and gaining the ability to get entire satisfaction out of driving hogs."

"He was the first President, our Professor of Greek at the time of the founding of the University, as our President today, of the expansion of the University, is one of the Greeks. I have knowledge of that which stand for the doctrine. Once a University man, always a University man. One chiseled our corner-stone, and the design of the arch under which every day forces, we as a University shall march into the new century. Professor Wheeler, formerly of New York, is to do as the arch, as a Californian as can be found within the boundaries of the State—more than a Californian, the President of a great University, an educational beacon on the Western verge of the continent."

"Our meeting to-night is more than a rally, it is a battle. It is a battle of all University forces, for the espousing of hands of all departments, for the cooperation of Regents who govern, of the faculty who are to instruct, of the students who are to work and of the alumni who are to sustain. It is a battle of law, medicine and art, and yet, here, forth there is to be no order of departmental feeling. Though agriculture, science, letters and business are here, henceforth there is to be no there or here of separation, as the greater University of California steps over the threshold of the new century. Department is the name of a fraction. Our family name is the University of California, and we have no other name. The great point is, you are a student, a member of the faculty, a student, an alumnus, a member of the faculty, or a son of our one mother, the University of California, to whose feet our footsteps run like those of children running to their father's house."

"If any man has stood for a department, let him henceforth stand for the whole. Let him be a student, a member of the faculty, a student, an alumnus, a member of the faculty, or a son of our one mother, the University of California, to whose feet our footsteps run like those of children running to their father's house."

GIRARD FINED IN COURT FOR GAMBLING.

The game of "kern" or "keno" was effectively suppressed in this city by the conviction this morning of John Girard, who sought to carry on a game of keno between Eighth and Ninth streets. This morning Girard expressed his satisfaction with the verdict, promising to discontinue the game. He attempted to run it in no other part of the city. This admission was made after a fine of $75 had been imposed upon him for keno in San Francisco. Girard declared that he had not intended to put in a substitute game for "keno," and that he did not believe when he introduced "keno" that it was a game which was in violation of law. He said he was satisfied to the contrary on that point now that the jury had found him guilty.

ALAMEDA WILL PLAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP Associated Students Hold Meeting and Talk Business.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 23.—The annual tennis tournament for the single championship of the University of California will take place on the courts of the Alameda Tennis Club on Monday afternoon, Nov. 27. The Alameda Tennis Club are among the most attractive on the coast, and the accommodations for spectators first-class. There will be a good attendance at the affair.

The tournament will commence at 9 o'clock in the morning and will be continued throughout the day. It is expected that there will be some very interesting matches during the afternoon. There will probably be about twenty entries. The leading ones being Wm. Allen, Paul Selby, Robert Hunt, Earl Stone and H. Bailey. All of these except the latter have played in previous tournaments before. Bailey is a new man, who made a good showing in the doubles at Del Monte this fall, and he should develop into a high-class player.

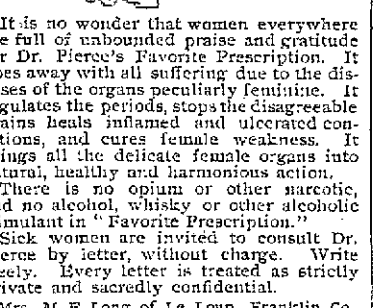

All matches in the tournament except the finals will be the best two out of three. The finals will be three out of five. Prizes will be awarded to the winners of first and second places.

Associated Students.
The Associated Students of the Alameda High school had their regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon in the English room. The report of the treasurer showed a balance of $10 on hand. The committee on athletics reported a revival of interest in the sports. The committee on the association to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Dwight Edwards was now an attendant at the Lower High school, San Francisco.

Young People's Union.
The regular monthly business meeting of the Alameda Young People's Christian Union was held at the Santa Clara av.

It is scientifically affirmed, that in the thirty years which follow the change from the girl to the woman, beginning at fifteen and ending at forty-five, the average woman spends ten years of that time in physical suffering caused by irregular periods, disagreeable drags, disordered female troubles, or other derangements of the functions of the delicate female organs.

Such a woman is a woman's life spent in a struggle with pain.

It is no wonder that women everywhere are full of unbounded praise and gratitude for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It does away with all suffering due to the diseases of the organs peculiarly feminine. It regulates the periods, stops the disagreeable drags, heals inflamed and ulcerated conditions, and cures female weakness. It brings all the delicate female organs into normal, healthy and harmonious action, and is a most powerful and effective stimulant in "Favorite Prescription."

Such a woman is a woman's life spent in a struggle with pain.

Dr. Pierce's Pills cleanse the skin.

Dr. M. E. Church last Tuesday evening. Delegates from seven societies were present.

The business session, the subject of "Good Literature" was discussed. The importance of the cultivation of the intellectual nature as essential to the development of the spiritual was clearly shown.

The Third Vice-President of the M. E. South-western district, Dr. J. W. Rogers, prepared a course of winter readings for that society. Progress was reported in the "Christian Culture" course taken up by the Baptist Young People's Union.

Debating Union.
The several debating unions of the High School held their meetings Friday afternoon. The contestants and subjects for the debate were: "Resolved, That inventions improve the condition of the working classes." Affirmative, Harry Brown, Negative, Harold Negalio, Lillian Barnett and Edna Bassett.

The discussion was rendered in favor of the affirmative.

Junior Debating Union.
The Junior Debating Union, subject, "Resolved, That the Government should control the railroads." Affirmative, E. Baker, Negative, Wm. R. Rosseter, Negative, Milo Hickox, A. J. S. Brown. The affirmative won the decision.

The debaters, generally, are improving very much. They are now quicker witted and clearer headed than they were when the first debate of the season was contested.

News Notes.
A "Fan Party" will be given in Blandford Hall this evening by Yosemite Council No. 41, J. Q. A. J.

E. W. Anderson of Company G has been promoted to the rank of Corporal. Corporal Anderson's name was included in the list of Company G promotions published last evening.
